MOUNTAIN ROUTE AROUND THE GREAT WIDDERSTEIN

HARD HIKING

TOUR DESCRIPTION

This circular route around the Widderstein, the sentinel of the valley visible from afar, starts in Baad and begins with a moderate ascent to the Bärgunthütte. From there it goes - ascending more steeply - on a mountain path up to the Hochalppass. Crossing at height along the southern foothills of the Widderstein with views of Warth and the Hochtannberg Pass, it continues to the serviced Widdersteinhütte. From there the path leads down over coarser rock to the upper Gemstelalpe. For a short time somewhat exposed, a secured section goes through a gorge and then through a belt of dwarf pines down to Bernhards Gemstelalp. From there a moderate alpine path leads down the Gemsteltal valley and back along the left side of the Breitach to Baad.
